Books and Non-Cortland Items:

"First Cast: Teaching Kids to Fly Fish," by Phil Genova

The most comprehensive guide to date about youth flyfishing education. Drawing on years of teaching experience with 4-H and other programs, Genova includes helpful chapters on tackle, flytying, mentoring, saltwater flyfishing, and more. There are very few questions he does not answer. Click the link above to purchase now!

"Fly Fishing with Children: A Guide for Parents," by Phillip Brunquell

Brunquell has professional experience dealing with childhood education. This knowledge shines through in his detailed instructions and advice. Look for special sections on the disabled child and stewardship. Click the link above to purchase now!

"Intelligent Troutng: Fly Fishing Basics and Beyond," by Thomas Neil Zaco

This book delves into the culture and spiritual pursuits of flyfishing, yet has plenty of practical information for both the novice and expert. A very good read with helpful diagrams and related stories.

"Fly Fishing with Trout Tail: A Child's Journey," by K.H. Lucas

A book for parents and grandparents who want to teach smaller kids about the simple wonders of flyfishing. Short and easy to read, it will help you get your youngster excited about being outdoors. It would make a good holiday present for parent or child. Click the link above to purchase now!

Here is a list of links for inexpensive fly tying books tailored to beginners:
