

2015 Big Wood Single Fly

Date: July 25-26, 2015

Location: Big Wood River, Ketchum, ID

Participation: 20 teams of 2 people

Event Schedule

- Saturday, July 25 - registration and welcome dinner begins at 6 pm in Hailey, ID
- Sunday, July 26 - event fishing, lunch, awards dinner and fundraiser

Basic Rules: One fly per angler, one point per trout caught and released added to the total inches of two measured trout. A “big trout bonus” of 5 points for a trout of 15-17”. A “super big trout bonus” of 10 points for a trout >17”. See website for complete rules.

Event Goal: Proceeds from the Big Wood Single Fly will help fund the Home Rivers Initiative undertaken by Trout Unlimited and the Wood River Land Trust, and will be put to use “on the ground;” protecting, re-connecting, restoring, and sustaining the Big Wood River and its wild trout fishery. Specifically, proceeds will be used to 1) enhance and improve habitat along the mainstem Big Wood River and tributaries, 2) enhance streamflows, 3) restore disconnected tributaries and habitats, 4) work collaboratively with state and federal resource agencies to assess watershed conditions, and 5) engage in youth education in regards to resource stewardship.
