

Come to TU's Teen Summit National Leadership Conference to meet other TU teens from across the country, talk about how TU can better engage teen members, learn how to become a TU leader in your community, work on a service project, and fish! Spend three full days in the birthplace of Trout Unlimited with a group of new friends that love fishing, the outdoors and TU as much as you do.

Where: Graves Mountain Lodge in Syria, VA

When: Sunday June 17 – Thursday June 21, 2018

Who: Dedicated anglers and conservationists who have shown involvement with TU and have just completed 8th, 9th, 10th, or 11th grade. Application is required and not all teens are accepted to attend. All summiters must be TU members before attending the TU Teen Summit; teens sign up for $14 at www.tu.org/youth.

Cost: $300 includes food, lodging, and shuttle from the airport. Selected applicants will be asked to pay this fee by mid-May.

To apply: Application available on www.tu.org/teensummit. Deadline is March 12, 2018 at midnight. Some applicants will be invited to participate in a phone interview.

Activities include:

- conservation and fishing tours of the Au Sable
- leadership skills workshops to bring new TU activities into your community
  - conservation and science sessions
  - fly tying and fly fishing workshops
- fly fishing and conservation biology guest speakers
  - a service project at a local stream
- lots of time for hanging out by the campfire, tying flies, and fishing!
